

Sample (ξ): Scientific Poster Rubric for a Character/Book/Documentary Film

Criterion	Rating Scale
	High	Average	Low
Information	Names of the book/character/film are included with a brief introduction that contains important information	Names of the book/character/film are included with a brief introduction that contains some important information	Names of the book/character/film are included, but contains no introduction
Percentage: 20%
Images and Graphics	Poster includes images and graphics that illustrate the meaning and organization of the topic	Poster may include images and graphics that are not directly related to the topic, or are of low quality	Images are completely unrelated to the topic, or no images and graphics have been included
Percentage: 20%
Organization	Information is well structured using organizing tools such as lists and graphs	Information is unstructured and not easy to follow, as well as inefficient use of organization tools	No clear structure to the information, and none of the organization tools have been used
Percentage: 20%
Colors	Background color and fonts were selected so that all parts of the poster can be clearly read	Background color and fonts were not carefully selected in some parts of the poster making those parts difficult to clearly read	Background color and fonts make it difficult to clearly read various parts of the poster
Percentage: 10%
Proofreading	No spelling or grammatical errors	Some spelling or grammatical errors	Numerous spelling or grammatical errors
Percentage: 10%
References	References are provided for all resources and follow proper citation styles used in the field/college	Incomplete resource references are provided, and they somewhat follow citation styles used in the field/college	No resource references that follow citation styles used in the field/college are provided
Percentage: 10%

Note: The specified percentages in the forms are suggested percentages and may be adjusted by the faculty member in accordance with the objectives of the course (to be placed in all forms)